

Aletsch Glacier

(about 20 min. by cable car)

Being the biggest glacier of the Alps, the Aletsch Glacier is also the center of the UNESCO World Heritage site “Swiss Alps – Jungfrau, Aletsch”. The ice-giant’s dimensions are huge: 23 km long, 900 m wide + 27’000 million tons heavy.

Goms + Binntal

(about 35 min. by car)

Searching for minerals in the fascinating landscape of the widely untouched country park Binn. Discover culture at several museums, churches and chapels. Or winter sports at its best at the mekka of cross-country skiing, the Goms.

Brig + Stockalper castle

(about 10 min. by car)

Kaspar Jodok von Stockalper was the Fugger of the Alps, the most genius merchant far and wide. His castle in Brig – the biggest private building built during the 17th century in Switzerland – bears witness to his wealth.

Naters + Bone house

(about 10 min. by car)

“What you are, that we were. What we are, you shall become.” is written in the bone house of Naters (1514), where the bones and skulls of the dead are carefully laid upon another and to be marveled at.

Ernen

(about 35 min. by car)

Ernen is said to be one of the most beautiful villages of the Valais, deservedly so. Every summer top-class classical music concerts take place. And young writers are meeting with Donna Leon, to study the fundamentals of successful writing.

Biking

The Valais is a paradise for Bike-Tours in the alpine mountain scenery. And not only for motorbikes which try to cross as many passes in one day as possible. But also mountain-bikers get their money’s worth.

Paragliding

(about 25 min. by car or train)

The Fiescheralp is a real Eldorado for paragliders. You can not only learn flying yourself, but also being a passenger is possible. With an experienced pilot, you’re starting at an altitude of 2000 m and glide down into the valley.

Simplon + Stockalperweg

(about 45 min. by car)

About mid-17th century the pass was being upgraded by the owner of the salt monopoly, Kaspar Jodok von Stockalper. On the pass he built the Spittel, at Gondo the Stockalpertower. The path is now a popular hiking route.

Glacier grotto Furka

(about 50 min. by car)

A 100 m long ice tunnel with an ice chamber, which is, since 1870 every year anew, getting carved into the glacier! Nowhere else in Europe is it possible to drive as near to a glacier as at the “Belvédère” at 2300 m a.s.l. on the Furkapass.

Raron + Rainer-Maria Rilke

(35 min. by car)

Next to the late gothic castle church with the biggest mediaeval mural paintings in Switzerland, rests the poet Rainer Maria Rilke. His epitaph: “Rose, oh pure contradiction, joy of being No-one’s sleep, under so many lids.”

Fondation Giannadda

(about 1¼ h by car)

The foundation Giannada is located at Martigny. The well-known museum attracts hundreds of thousands of visitors into its expositions every year. Are you in the mood for Picasso, Monet or Van Gogh? Chagall, Rodin or Kadinsky?

Zermatt

(about 1h by car or train)

One of Switzerland’s highlights. Situated at the foot of the Matterhorn, it offers pure luxury amidst the Alps. During summer, there is the Blausee, Grünsee and Schwarzsee offering a refreshment to the hiker.

Markt at Domodossola (I)

(45 min. by Train)

At the Italian townlet there awaits you a completely different world. Every Saturday there is a big market with specialities and everything for the bargain hunter. Tip: travel one way by Postcar over the Simplonpass.

Walliser vineyards

(about 35 min. by car)

The Valais is the biggest swiss wine producer. From Europe’s highest vineyards at Visperterminen, all the way down to the lake of Geneva extraordinary vintages are thriving. Tip: The Suonen-route from Leuk to the wine-museum at Sierre.
